DAY 6: Bol & Zlatni Rat Beach / Boat ride / Hvar town / Cooking lesson and home-hosted dinner

Bid farewell to your hotel in Brač and transfer by coach across the top of the island to the base of Vidova Gora. From here, ride through easy terrain past the medieval settlements of Praznica and Gornji Humac. These rustic hamlets illustrate how the island's towns and villages developed from individual homes, usually shepherds' houses. Enjoy breathtaking views during your downhill ride to Zlatni Rat (meaning "Golden Horn"), the most famous beach in Croatia. This spit of land reaches out into the water with a gentle slope. You can swim in the Adriatic's crystal-clear water before lunch on your own in the adjacent town of Bol. After lunch, take a private boat to Jelsa on the island of Hvar. Then, shuttle to your hotel in Hvar town. In the event of inclement weather, this transfer operates as noted below.

Nearly 42 miles (67.5 km) long, seven miles (11 km) wide, and only three miles (5 km) at its narrowest point, Hvar is the most famous and seductive Adriatic island. Along with Bali, Zanzibar, Mykonos and Capri, Hvar has been called "one of the most beautiful islands in the world" by Condé Nast Traveler magazine. Its permanent population of 12,000 people clusters on the western part of the island, adjacent to the most fertile and protected land.

Your hotel's central location affords the perfect vantage point from which to explore Hvar town, a medieval Croatian settlement with a strong Venetian influence dating back to the 16th century. Visit the Arsenal, built in 1612 as Europe's oldest and perhaps smallest municipal theater. Its purpose was to bring the aristocratic and bourgeois classes together, and it stands as a symbol of reconciliation between social classes and the abolition of privilege—although it should be noted that women were not admitted until the second half of the 19th century. Take in the expanse of Saint Stephen's Square, the largest Adriatic square after Saint Mark's in Venice.

Tonight, walk to a nearby home for a delicious dinner. This festive repast starts with a welcome toast and a tour of the home's garden. Your hosts will teach you how to prepare some of the best local dishes during a group cooking demonstration.

Inclement Weather Itinerary: If rough weather makes it impossible for our small chartered ferry to operate, guests will travel between Brač and Hvar on the large car ferries that operate via Split, creating a longer travel day. The two ferry rides are separated by a two-hour visit to Split, where you can enjoy a walk and lunch on your own.

Upon returning to Stari Grad, the support vehicle will shuttle you back to the hotel and your trip leaders will give you recommendations on how to spend the rest of the day on Hvar.

DAY 8: Vrboska / Jelsa / Pitva / Brusje

Today's ride—certain to be a highlight of your bike tour of Croatia—is relatively flat. It carries you through verdant fields and quiet stone villages and along the narrow harbor between Vrboska and Jelsa.

Your first destination is Vrboska, an adorable harbor town famous for its fortified church. Unique in Croatia, the structure resulted from an urgent need for both the church and the secular citizenry to join together to fortify their village from invaders. From here, you'll skirt a fjord on a flat and scenic road, perhaps stopping at a small cove for a cooling dip (don't forget your swimsuit!). End the morning with a picnic in the old fishing port of Jelsa, where you'll see the well-maintained homes of local ship captains and perhaps enjoy another refreshing dip.

Then, ride through the mountain village of Pitve. With its traditional stone houses, konobas (taverns) and terraced gardens, Pitve exemplifies the island towns of Croatia. Shuttle back to the hotel from Stari Grad in the late afternoon, or opt for a longer ride that brings you back through Brusje to Hvar.

Tonight, enjoy a farewell dinner on the terrace of your hotel, overlooking Hvar.
