1 night for only $195

- 1 night at the Hotel Vermont
- Full breakfast
- City Information
- Transfer to the main tour

Come to Vermont early to discover charming, effervescent Burlington. The state's largest city, although small by most standards, is a spirited college town with a quirky charm set on the shore of Lake Champlain. You'll find that a refreshing youthfulness naturally combines with old-fashioned New England tradition here—from the pedestrian-only Church Street Marketplace to the colorful coffee shops, bistros, bookstores, and art galleries. Your base is the delightful Hotel Vermont, which opened in May, 2013. Hotel Vermont is the home of one of Vermont's favorite and most respected restaurants, Hen of the Wood, featuring acclaimed farm-to-table cuisine by six-time James Beard Award nominee Chef Eric Warnstedt. With an ideal location just a block from the waterfront, all of Burlington is within walking distance.

Single Supplement: $145

The optional Pre-trip extensions are subject to availability and are not offered on every tour.
