Your ship is moored in Melk, Austria, when you wake. After breakfast, cycle through what is perhaps the most beautiful stretch of the Danube—the Wachau Valley, Austria’s renowned wine-growing region. The Wachau Cultural Landscape was designated a UNESCO World Heritage site in 2000. This breathtaking region is dotted with lush vineyards, hillside orchards, castle ruins, churches, and abbeys, making it one of the most picturesque cycling routes in Europe.

Ride through the scenic hamlets of Spitz and Wiessenkirchen, nestled between the Danube and its rising banks, before pedaling into Dürnstein, a hub of Wachau wine production. Admire its stunning powder-blue bell tower, rising above red-roofed houses, while a cliffside castle, once the prison of Richard the Lionheart, watches over the town.
