DAY 1: VBT Bicycle Vacation begins / Warm-up ride / Welcome reception

Meet your VBT Trip Leaders and the rest of the group at our Palma del Rio Hotel (Monasterio de San Francisco, Avenida Pio XII 35, phone +34 957 710183) at 10:00 a.m. Please ask at the hotel’s reception desk for the exact location of today’s meeting with your Trip Leaders. If your arrival at the hotel is scheduled later than 10:00 a.m. or if you are delayed, please contact the Monasterio de San Francisco hotel, and the staff will pass your message on to your VBT Trip Leaders.

This morning, your Trip Leaders will host an informative tour overview as well as a safety and bike-fitting session, followed by a warm-up ride in the surroundings of Palma del Rio. You will be riding on the fertile lowland of the Guadalquivir River. Please be dressed in your biking garments when meeting the leaders as your warm-up ride immediately follows the safety talk and bike-fitting.

After the warm-up ride, you will have time for lunch on your own at the hotel or one of Palma del Rio’s restaurants. Spend the remainder of the afternoon relaxing by the quiet swimming pool, strolling through the vegetable gardens, or exploring the town’s sites. Ambitious riders may opt for an afternoon ride.

Tonight, gather with your Trip Leaders and travel mates for a welcome reception, including tapas and sangria, two of Andalusia’s regional specialties. You’ll learn about the history of Spain and Andalusia before dinner is served.

Hotel: Monasterio de San Francisco
Meals: Dinner

Today’s Ride Choices:
Warm-Up Loop: 13 km (8 miles)
Sierra Morena Loop: 40.3 km (24 miles)

What to Expect: Your ride in Andalusia starts with an easy warm-up loop. You will cross the Genil River as you exit town. From there, you will see the fertile plain of the Guadalquivir River and pass a typical Andalusian farm called a cortijo. If you choose to ride after lunch on your own, cycle out of town toward the foothills of Sierra Morena, looping back down to the Guadalquivir River valley.

DAY 2: Home-hosted picnic lunch with local family
En route to Córdoba today, you’ll ride up to the foothills of the Sierra Morena Mountain Range and the Parque Natural de Horanchuelos. Following the Guadalquivir River, you will make your way into the Campina Cordobesa-Córdoban countryside. Along the way, you’ll stop at a typical Andalusian cortijo, where you’ll meet a local family and enjoy a picnic lunch.

Later in the afternoon, you’ll arrive at your beautiful and centrally located four-star Córdoba hotel. In the 11th century, this was the largest and most cosmopolitan city in Europe. A developed system for running water and streetlights existed, along with vast libraries where Arabic, Latin, and Greek manuscripts were translated. Jews, Muslims, and Christians all coexisted in this cultural crossroads. Exceptional monuments like the Mezquita of Córdoba are a good representation of the blend of these different cultures. Famous sons of Córdoba include the philosophers Seneca (Roman), Averroes (Arabian), and Maimonides (Jewish). Córdoba has been inscribed in the list of UNESCO World Heritage sites since 1984.

Your hotel is a few steps from the Mezquita in the Judería—the charming Jewish district and the very heart of Córdoba. It consists of ancient, private homes from the 17th and 18th centuries, with lovely patios and fountains. The property was carefully restored in 2009.

Spend the rest of the evening at your leisure enjoying all the amenities of your hotel, or venture out and explore Córdoba’s historic sites. Dinner is on your own this evening.

Hotel: Casas de la Judería
Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Today’s Ride Choices:
Old Road to Posadas: 32.4 km (19 miles)
Posadas to Cortijo el Temple: 47.7 km (29 miles)
Córdoba: 65.9 km (40 miles)

What to Expect: Today’s ride starts through Palma del Río and continues gently uphill toward Hornachuelos. You leave the Guadalquivir River plain behind as you bike along the borders of the Sierra. The ride is mostly easy but there will be some uphill cycling no longer than 1 kilometer (0.6 mile). By noon you approach the quiet town of Posadas for a break and join the van for the end of the short option. From here you will shuttle to our lunch location. If you continue cycling from the town of Posadas after your break, you’ll cross the Rio Guadalquivir on an easy ride to the Cortijo el Temple for lunch. After lunch, you will shuttle to Córdoba or continue cycling on longer option that includes a series of hills to the outskirts of Córdoba. From the finish line, you will be shuttled to the hotel.

DAY 3: Explore Córdoba

After breakfast, meet your local guide and set out on foot. Start by visiting a nearby synagogue and then continue to the Mezquita.

Originally built as a temple, lighthouse, and warehouse, the Mezquita (mosque) was once the second-largest mosque in the world and later consecrated as a Christian church after Córdoba was captured by the Spanish in the 12th century. Today, it is considered one of the world’s greatest examples of Moorish architecture. Around the Mezquita, you’ll see the Alcazar de los Reyes Cristianos and the Archipiscopal Palais, the Roman Bridge with its 16 arches spanning the Guadalquivir River, and the Jewish synagogue built in 1315 in La Judería. Córdoba is also an excellent place to shop for pottery, silver work, abanicos
Take time on your own this afternoon to explore the many sites and shops of Córdoba. You might want to enjoy an ancient local tradition: an Arab bath in one of the nearby hammams. Immerse yourself in its warm waters, followed by a relaxing massage with essential oils.

Tonight, choose a restaurant for dinner on your own in Córdoba. You might visit a flamenco house in front of the Mezquita or one of the restaurants in La Judería, the Jewish district, where you can also taste local specialties like caldereta de cordero, ragout of lamb, or sausages such as morcilla, cana de lomo, and salchichón de Pozo Blanco. Salmorejo and flamenquines are the most famous Cordovan dishes. Arab influences can be found in the sweet alfajores and pestiños with almonds and honey.

DAY 4: Ruta del Vino / La Via Verde / Wine & cooking demonstration

After breakfast, leave Córdoba and shuttle to the Cordillera Subbética and the Ruta del Vino wine road. As the name suggests, this hilly region is all olive trees and vineyards, producing and exporting excellent white wines and olive oils. One of the most renowned wines produced in this area is the Pedro Ximénez sweet wine, particularly recommended to complement local postres desserts. At lunchtime, stop at a beautiful bodega and taste locally produced wines with your meal.

Then, ride toward the Subbética mountain range, where you have the option of riding on the Via Verde rails-to-trails path. You may follow this trail to your hotel for the next two nights. Avid cyclists looking for some hills can opt for a more challenging route.

In the afternoon, arrive at the Hacienda Minerva. Dating to the end of the 19th century, it was found in ruins, restored, and turned into a hotel. The old machinery of the olive-oil mill still serves as part of the décor. Enjoy time to relax by the pool, book a massage, or indulge in the hotel's Arab baths (at additional cost – please ask your leaders to assist in booking massages and the Arab baths in advance of your arrival to the hotel). Later, meet up with the rest of your group to learn the story behind the property, which also includes a library and a cozy taverna bar. Later, learn how to make one of Andalusia's popular dishes. Dinner will be served in the dining room of the hotel, once the pressing room of the oil mill.
