Wander the atmospheric Old Town, a labyrinth of medieval alleyways lined with inviting shops and charming cafés. Marvel at the stunning Gothic architecture of the Seu Cathedral, rising majestically above the waterfront. For panoramic views of the city and sea, head up to Bellver Castle—a unique 14th-century circular fortress built by King James II of Mallorca. VBT provides city information with helpful recommendations to help you make the most of your time in Palma.
