

Italy: Southern Tuscany & Giglio Island

Bike Vacation + Air Package

This original cycling tour of southern Tuscany has had its share of copycats.

We're flattered—but don't be fooled; reproductions are never authentic as the original. With 20 years of experience cycling the Tuscan coast, we know the best seaside routes, award-winning vineyards, and masserias that reflect the Maremma's unique character. Our local Tuscan trip leaders will take you to secluded swimming coves—including a delightful beach on Giglio Island where you can cool off after an afternoon's guided walking tour. Pedal the shores of the Orbetello lagoon, learn to prepare Tuscan cantucci during a cooking class, and enjoy a tasting of Tuscany's "liquid gold" at a local olive oil mill. This incredible cycling vacation has it all.

Cultural Highlights

- Savor fresh farm cuisine during stays at fattorie lodgings.
- Dip your toes, lounge in the sand, or swim in the Tyrrhenian Sea.
- Learn from a Tuscan chef how to prepare cantucci almond cookies.
- Taste locally pressed olive oil at a local oil mill.
- Walk a panoramic trail with a local guide on Giglio Island.

Your Tuscany bike tour begins at Antica Fattoria La Parrina, a welcoming, four-star agriturismo resort, featured in Condé Nast Traveler magazine. Surrounded by beautiful countryside, it produces its own wine, cheese, yogurt, vegetables, oil, balsamic vinegar, and flowers. Organic pasta, delicious jams and sauces, and cosmetics are also partly prepared and available here. All products are made with natural and healthy ingredients. In the afternoon, you'll join our trip leaders for a safety and bike-fitting session, followed by a short warm-up ride over the estate along quiet country roads.

Later, join your hosts at La Parrina on the terrace for a hands-on cooking class. Learn how to prepare typical Tuscan cantucci—delicious almond cookies that are best when dipped in sweet Vin Santo wine. Move to the terrace and enjoy a welcome cocktail reception. Dinner is at the hotel.

Today's Ride Choices

Afternoon: Warm-up — 17 km (11 miles)

What to Expect:

Cumulative Distance Range: 17 km (11 miles)

DAY 2: Cycle by the Maremma Park / Talamone / Picnic lunch

After breakfast, you'll leave La Parrina and cycle to the coast and Talamone, where you'll discover the many Greek legends linked to this little fortress village. There'll be time during the morning's ride to swim in the glittering blue sea. The medieval hilltop town of Talamone overlooks the Mediterranean and is set in the rolling countryside of the Maremma, one of the least-developed areas of central Italy. Its skyline is dominated by an ancient Sienese castle. This little town of fishermen originally stood on Talamonaccio Hill and served as an ancient Etruscan port. Currently, Talamone is set inside a World Wildlife Fund nature reserve known as Parco Regionale della Maremma (Maremma Park), which features an incredible variety of protected flora and fauna. Lunch today is a delicious picnic prepared by your trip leaders.

In the afternoon, you'll cycle back to your hotel, where you can relax at the wonderful pool or take a walk on the mapped trails that weave through the estate. Or you may opt for horseback riding in the area, well known for its local breed of Maremma horses. Your tour leaders will facilitate your option and you will need to call in advance to book.

Browse the Parrina large organic shop to learn about the awarded cheeses, olive oil, wines and products that they produce onsite. Enjoy dinner at the hotel.

DAY 3: Cycle to Feniglia and Orbetello / Lunch at winery

This morning, ride through the countryside toward the coast and Ansedonia, passing elegant villas and gardens and enjoying splendid views of the sea and the old watchtower that once defended this coast. Enjoy a picnic lunch along the way at a typical Maremma family-run winery called 'Il Ponte'. This name, that in Italian has the dual meaning of 'bridge' and 'bank holiday', was given after the owners' desire to make this once second home a place to spend quality family time, return here and make the most of every opportunity, especially the bank-holidays. Our host Marta will present the farm wine selection and offer a tasting. From the terrace, enjoy full-views of the sea, the hill-top town of Capalbio and the countryside. This afternoon, you'll cycle through a thick pine forest, and then roll alongside a sandy beach; if you wish, you can pause here for a refreshing swim. This is one of the most beautiful routes of the week.

Later, you'll continue to the old town of Orbetello, traversing a cycling path built on the lagoon. Explore the lush byway around the lagoon, then rejoin your trip leaders and follow them to a great gelato spot. A short shuttle ride will take you back to your hotel.

Tonight, you'll shuttle to Orbetello for a stroll and some shopping before enjoying dinner on your own; you can opt to remain at your hotel if you prefer.

In the afternoon, the ride is almost all flat, with the exception of a short steep climb to Ansedonia. It is followed by a 5-mile stretch in a nature reserve near the sea and beach where the terrain here is packed unpaved. After, a flat, well-paved bike path follows a shallow lagoon, leading to our final destination in Orbetello. You can take our support vehicle to avoid the climb to Ansedonia.

DAY 4: Porto Santo Stefano / Ferry to Giglio Island

Today, take a pedaling break from your Tuscany bike tour to enjoy the tranquility of the Giglio island. You'll start this morning with a warm goodbye to your hosts at La Parrina before traveling to the bustling harbor and quaint village of Porto Santo Stefano. From this port town, board a ferry to Giglio Island, arriving in the village of Giglio Porto. With a local guide, you'll shuttle to the walled hilltop town of Giglio Castello, where you'll explore the imposing Rocca Pisana fortress. Giglio Castello is the oldest inhabited center on the island and still retains much of its medieval atmosphere.

After, continue westward to Campese Beach for an informal lunch in one of the restaurants. You have free time to swim or relax on the beach. If you prefer, opt for a hike along the Faraglione cliffs: Learn about the 700 different species of wildflowers and plants that grow in this remote corner of Tuscany. On your way back to Giglio Porto, stop for a gelato before ferrying back to the mainland.

This evening at Fattoria di Magliano, our small local country resort and your home for the next three nights, you'll have time to relax by the pool and enjoy the sunset from the landscaped gardens. Dinner is at the hotel.

Morellino wine. Then stop at the Magliano olive oil shop and former mill to indulge in an interesting olive-oil talk and tasting. Continue cycling through Magliano and enjoy an included lunch on the medieval piazza. In the Middle Ages, this walled city was the winter home of the Aldobrandeschi court. Some of its 14th-century city walls are still intact.

From Magliano, those who wish to sample the hills of Tuscany on two wheels can join an optional, gentle-but-steady climb to the lovely villages of Pereta and Scansano.

Stroll along these ancient ramparts above the city and take in the panoramic views of the surrounding countryside. Then enter the historic center through one of two gates—the Sienese or the Porticina—and visit the city's Romanesque Castle of Saint Nicholas, with its dramatic bell tower. The tower features two rows of mullioned windows dating to the 12th century. Explore the town's winding cobblestone streets, medieval churches, and shops. Finish your day with a rewarding ride all the way back to the hotel. If you prefer, you may hop on our shuttle.

Back at the hotel this afternoon, relax or swim in the pool before sipping local wines—produced right on the farm—during an included wine tasting. Fattoria di Magliano is one of the region’s most renowned producers of Tuscan wines that have changed the Italian wine industry.

Tonight, enjoy an aperitivo as the sun sets behind the Tuscan horizon one final time during your trip. Prepare to share stories of your Tuscany bike tour during a festive farewell dinner at a great local restaurant.
