DAY 3: Lyon city walking / Afternoon loop to nature reserve

Arrive back in Lyon this morning as you're enjoying breakfast on board. Then disembark for a city tour of France's gastronomic capital renowned for its coq au vin, or chicken with wine, and quenelles de brochet, or mousse of pike. The heart of the 2,000-year-old city lies on a thin peninsula between the Rhône and Saône rivers. It's easy to imagine canuts, or silk merchants of old, zigzagging through the maze of Old World streets, cutting through the purpose-built narrow passageways known as traboules. Much of the city is a UNESCO World Heritage site, renowned as an urban "site of great commercial and strategic significance." You will also ascend Fourvière Hill, where the splendid Basilique de Notre Dame gazes out over the city.

After lunch on board, head out on the bikes to the Grand Parc de Miribel-Jonage on the outskirts of Lyon, beyond its city gates. This 5,400-acre (2,185-hectare) parkland blankets most of the Rhône's Miribel-Jonage island, created in the 1800s when the Miribel and Jonage canals were dredged. Today, it is a pleasure park for city dwellers and a wildlife preserve. After time enjoying its flat bike paths through forests and past a lake, you may shuttle or cycle back to the ship and enjoy the remainder of the day exploring on your own or relaxing on deck or in the ship's lounge. With a detour along the Isère River, your scenic loop will finish at the ship just before lunch.

In the afternoon, take a short walk in the charming little town of Tournon, nestled between the river and vineyard-laden slopes that produce some of the region's finest wines. DAY 5: Viviers

Disembark in Viviers, a historic town on the Rhône, you return to the scenic bike paths of the Via Rhône and cycle toward Bourg-Saint-Andéol, home to handsome patrician houses, churches, chapels, and grand clerical residences. The second part of the ride leads you past some of the Rhône's religious treasures, tracing lovely greenways, quiet roads, and the Iles des Dames islands, along your way back to Viviers.

Settled by Romans, Viviers was forced to erect walls when conflicts of the ensuing centuries arrived. The Renaissance period was kinder and more peaceful; the stunning Maison des Chevaliers still stands as a testament to that creative era. After lunch on board the ship, a stroll through Viviers' cobbled streets is a journey back in time. You may also choose to cycle an out-and-back ride along the Rhône, instead of the walking tour.

A delicious dinner with your trip leaders and a music-request evening on board are still in store, as you sail to Avignon later in the evening.

Today's Ride Choices

You dock early this morning in Avignon, the legendary City of Popes where the papacy was centered for 70 years in the 14th century. After breakfast on board, set out on a walking tour of this magnificent and historic city. Marvel at the mighty Palais des Papes, the Papal Palace, one of the great architectural wonders of France. View the adjacent historic Pont St. Bénzet, a medieval bridge reaching out into the river; only four of its original 22 arches remain. Then step through Avignon's gates to explore this fascinating UNESCO World Heritage site; its medieval walls enclose a rich repository of architecture that spans the ages. There'll be free time here before lunch on board.

Alternatively, cycle a scenic loop around Avignon, discovering small, countryside roads and small villages.

This afternoon, enjoy a short ride across the river to Villeneuve-lès-Avignon, which once served as a resort of the French cardinals who resided at Avignon. You pass over the island Ile de la Barthelasse to reach the river's opposite bank. Quiet, scenic roads with minimal traffic lead to one of the former olive-oil mills in Provence, founded in 1358. Enjoy a tasting of their production and learn how olive oil is made; perhaps you'll purchase some so you can take a taste of France home with you! After savoring some delicate pastries and a drink, you have free time here before returning to the ship by shuttle or bicycle.

This evening, savor an authentic Provençal dinner, prepared and hosted by a local chef whom we have invited on board.

DAY 7: Arles / Bike to Pont du Gard / Farewell dinner

Begin the day with a morning walk to the magnificent old town of Arles with your trip leaders. Then board a 45-minute shuttle to the spectacularly preserved Pont de Gard. A UNESCO World Heritage site, this 2,000-year-old Roman aqueduct once transported water 31 miles (50 km) from Nîmes. There'll be time to visit the enlightening museum, where you can learn how this towering structure was built without mortar.

Your trip leaders have arranged a savory picnic lunch to enjoy by the river, with a magnificent view of the aqueduct. After lunch, your bike invites you for a last, scenic ride of the week. The first part of your route follows an old, renovated rail trail to Beaucaire, where you can join a shuttle to Arles. If you choose to continue cycling, you will follow quiet, paved country roads through the fertile farmlands that provide Provence with its rich bounty. Later join the captain's cocktail and farewell dinner with your trip leaders and raise your glass to an unforgettable week.
