A small chain extending from the Luberon, the Alpilles are not very wide but rise dramatically out of the Rhône Valley. Their foothills are flanked by the Durance and Rhône rivers.

As you cycle, you can stop to wander through timeless villages. Perhaps you'll explore Eygalières and its lovely stone-built homes lining small winding streets. While here, you might walk to the top of the village to view the panorama, and enjoy a picnic lunch on your own in a cool field, shaded by olive or almond trees. If you're up for a more ambitious riding day, our longer option offers even more delightful scenery.

Later, meet up with your trip leaders and walk to meet local historian Mathilde Duvillier by the Saint-Paul Asylum, where Vincent van Gogh admitted himself. Mathilde will guide your small group to many of the places pictured in the artist's works during his time here, enabling you to relate the scenes directly to them. ## DAY 4: Pont du Gard / Avignon

Cycle through the countryside to the Abbaye St. Michel de Frigolet after breakfast this morning. Set in a pine forest, this revered site dates to at least 1133.

After a short stop at the abbey or picnic lunch on your own, you may shuttle or cycle to the Pont du Gard. Whichever you choose, you'll cross the Rhône River and arrive in the Languedoc region. Built by the Romans in the first century BC (and declared a UNESCO World Heritage site in 1985), the Pont du Gard is just one segment of a 31-mile-long (49.9-km) aqueduct built to transport water from a spring in Uzès to the city of Nîmes. Remarkably, the structure was built entirely without mortar, using stones that weighed up to six tons. Consisting of three levels, this bridge appears surprisingly delicate despite the massive stones used in its construction. Much of the aqueduct has deteriorated over time, but this most impressive span still stands. Park your bike and walk across this stunning architectural achievement.

After exploring the Pont du Gard, shuttle to your next hotel, in Avignon. Once settled in, you have time to relax, perhaps in the hotel's rooftop pool or in the secret garden, before gathering for an authentic Provençal meal.

If you desire a longer ride, pedal through Vers en route to the Pont du Gard.

DAY 5: Avignon

Sleep in this morning, then linger over breakfast before joining a local guide for a walking tour of the fabled “City of the Popes.” Stroll the timeless cobblestone streets of this ancient city.

Try lunch at one of the local bistros, or enjoy a picnic by the river.

In the afternoon, you may take a break from your bike to explore by foot or go on a bike ride. If you choose to spend the afternoon in Avignon, then the rest of the day is yours to traverse Avignon on your own. City highlights include the former papal residence—the immense Palais des Papes (Papal Palace). Now a museum, this Gothic building was fortified with walls up to 18 feet (5.5 meters) thick. Or perhaps you’ll walk the surviving section of the Pont d’Avignon. Built in the 12th century, this bridge originally spanned the Rhône but has suffered frequent collapses from floods. Only four of its original 22 arches remain. You may also wish to buy Provençal fabric tablecloth.

If you decide to cycle, the ride will take you across the river to Villeneuve-lès-Avignon where you may ride up to Fortress Saint André and admire the view over Avignon and the Rhône River. Next, you will ride to Island de La Barthelasse through many orchards before returning to your hotel.

Tonight is free for you to enjoy dinner in one of the local restaurants.

You'll also sample some local wine in the cellar's tasting room.

En route back to the hotel, cycle through the village of Tavel, famous for its rosé wine. Here, you may stop for an optional tasting in a wine cellar.
