DAY 1: VBT Bicycle Vacation begins / Transfer to hotel via Cluny / Warm-up ride

VBT-Bicycle-Vacation-only guests: Meet one of your Trip Leaders in the lobby of the Hotel Carlton Lyon MGallery by Sofitel at 9:00 a.m. (4 rue Jussieu, Lyon 69002, telephone +33 478425651). He or she will be wearing VBT staff garments. If your arrival in Lyon is scheduled later than 9:00 a.m. or if you are delayed, you must take a taxi or train to the hotel in Tournus at your own expense (Hotel Le Rempart, 2 Avenue Gambetta, Tournus 71700, telephone +33 3 85511056). Taxi cost is approximately €200 (travel time is approximately 1 hour to the first hotel); train cost is approximately €30 (travel time is approximately 1 hour, 10 minutes). If you have taken the train, depart the train station and take a right; you will see the hotel on the opposite side of the road about 300 yards away. If you experience any travel delays or changes to your schedule, please contact the first hotel to advise the staff, and they will inform your VBT Trip Leaders.

Cluny, the former abbey and home of the Pope around AD 910, was larger than St. Peter's Basilica in Rome in its heyday. It was later dynamited, and its richly carved stones were sold by an unscrupulous group that included a local priest. You'll stroll along the ancient stone streets of Cluny with a local guide. VBT has timed your visit to fall on a market day, so you'll have the opportunity to buy some local specialties for lunch on your own.

Arrive at your Tournus hotel, meet your second Trip Leader, and have free time to settle in before a safety and bike-fitting session and brief warm-up ride through the countryside and on a bike path along the River Saône.

After some time to freshen up, meet for a welcome cocktail reception and dinner in your hotel. Dine in its restaurant that is highly rated by the Michelin guide as a "très bonne table" (very good table).

Hotel: Hotel Le Rempart

Meals: Breakfast (included for Air Package guests only), Dinner

Daily Options: 4.2 miles (6/8 km)

DAY 2: Chardonnay loop

This morning's ride takes you on the flat Voie Bleue bike path along the tranquil banks of the Saône. Keep your eyes open for the varied birdlife along your route.

Leaving the river, you'll enter rolling wine country, where the dry white wine of the Chardonnay grape is produced. Roll into the wine village of Viré, home to a recent success story in France's wine world. In the latter part of the 20th century, the villages of Viré and Clessé realized that they had a high-quality wine that could rival the older appellation of Pouilly-Fuissé, so they applied for a separate status. This was finally granted in 1999, and the Viré-Clessé appellation emerged.

Continue cycling to a small village with a name that is linked worldwide to dry white wine: Chardonnay. The village recently celebrated its thousandth anniversary. Its name comes from cardonnacum or the "place full of thistles." Chardonnay grapes most likely originated here and were then shared and distributed throughout France by monks. The earliest recorded reference to Chardonnay occurred in 1330. It was around this time that Cistercian monks built stone walls around their Clos de Vougeot vineyard exclusively planted to Chardonnay grapes. The village of stone houses grew up around the lavoir, a stream-fed wash-house, and several domaines (wine producers). You'll stop in this charming spot for lunch at a local restaurant.

After lunch, continue through the peaceful rural countryside before rejoining the Voie Bleue bike path along the river and following it back into Tournus.

Tonight, take a short walk to a nearby wine purveyor for an introduction and tasting of the incredible depth of Burgundy's wines. Afterward, you are free to enjoy dinner on your own in one of the local restaurants, or you may choose to eat in the hotel's renowned bistro.

Hotel: Hotel Le Rempart

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Daily Options: 12.1, 18.1 or 25 miles (19.7, 29.1, or 41.3 km)

DAY 3: Cycle through the Côte de Beaune

This morning, hop a shuttle to your starting point. Get underway with a brief reel through the vineyards of the Côte Chalonnaise. At Chalon sur Saône, pedal along the Voie Verte bike path, following the Canal du Centre to Santenay. Afterward, continue on small roads through the world-famous vineyards of the Côte de Beaune, passing renowned villages such as Puligny Montrachet, Meursault and Pommard—considered the mecca of Chardonnay production by many oenophiles.

This afternoon, there'll be time for lunch on your own before you continue your ride into Beaune, the elegant town that is imbued with wine traditions—and your next accommodation. After time to relax, walk through its charming pedestrian center for dinner in another Michelin “très bonne table” restaurant—not as high as a “star” but indicating a rigorous approval!

Hotel: Hotel Le Cep

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Daily Options: 15.2 or 29.1 miles (24.5 or 46.9 km)

DAY 4: Hospices de Beaune / Home-hosted lunch

After an elaborate breakfast (including wine and cheese, of course, for those who are so inclined), a five-minute walk takes you to the 15th-century Hospices de Beaune (also known as the Hotel Dieu), the epicenter of Beaune. This perfectly preserved historic treasure was the recipient of Europe’s earliest philanthropic endeavors and today is still entirely financed by private donations. It has never been closed a single day in more than 500 years! This authentic masterpiece of flamboyant Gothic art and architecture is Burgundy’s single most-visited site; you will understand why after setting foot inside the stunning courtyard. Visit the Hospice, then cycle out of wine country and head into the countryside on narrow, quiet roads to the small hamlet of Cussigny. As lunch nears, your small group is invited into an old mill that serves as the summer home of the Lefils family. Here, enjoy a game of pétanque before a picnic prepared by your Trip Leaders. Conclude this pleasant visit with homemade dessert and coffee or tea with your generous hosts.

Afterward, ride back to Beaune through forests, villages and—depending on the time of year—sunflower or canola fields. On return to your hotel, perhaps relax in the spa, then stroll through the town’s narrow medieval center to enjoy dinner on your own in one of the fine restaurants.

Hotel: Hotel Le Cep

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Daily Options: 12.3, 21.9 or 30.5 miles (19.8, 35.3 or 49.1 km)

DAY 5: Routes des Grands Crus / Dijon

Your cycle route today takes you through some of the most famous vineyards in the world, en route to Dijon, the beautiful capital of the Burgundy region. You’ll wind your way to Nuits St George, the region where famed Côte de Nuits red wines are produced. Here, stop to choose from different lunch options on your own before cycling along the narrow lanes used as access routes by local vineyard workers. In this area, monks toiled for centuries making wine for religious services. Historians now point out they likely kept the very best wine for themselves. It is thought that the very first red wines in the world were made here—and that monks macerated the grape skins so the typical rosé wine would more closely resemble the blood of Christ.

The UNESCO World Heritage Committee added the entire stretch of vineyards from Beaune to Dijon to its World Heritage List in July 2015. Along the Route des Grands Crus, you may wish to stop and explore old and charming villages such as Vosne-Romanée and Gevrey-Chambertin before continuing all the way to the outskirts of Dijon. As you enter the capital of Burgundy, marvel at the astonishingly well-preserved city center. Dijon, often called “Sleeping Beauty,” is third in France for its number of protected historic buildings, with more than 100 acres of the city center protected. This capital of the former ducal kingdom has attracted musicians, artists and writers for centuries.

After checking into your hotel, set out on a walking tour with your Trip Leaders. This evening, venture out on your own to wander the medieval cobbled streets and find just the right place to enjoy an apero (aperitif) and dinner on your own.

Hotel: Grand Hotel La Cloche

Meals: Breakfast

Daily Options: 12.1, 25.9 or 29.3 miles (19.6, 41.8 or 47.3 km)

DAY 6: Dijon / Burgundian canal / Valley de L'Ouche

After breakfast, cycle directly from the hotel to the Route des Jardins, Burgundy's beautiful Garden Route, and the pleasant byway along the Canal de Bourgogne to Pont de Pany.

A short option loops back to Dijon; longer options head into the Valley de L'Ouche along the winding River L'Ouche and the canal. The bucolic scenery here has made this route a favorite of every traveler in France for its lush, peaceful and unspoiled countryside—it's the pastoral side of France at its most authentic.

Back in Dijon, you might browse the many fine museums specializing in everything from fine arts and sacred art to natural history and daily Burgundian life. Each is free and housed in a historic building.

Tonight, finish your week of cycling with a stroll through Dijon's pedestrian streets to a farewell dinner in a fine gourmet restaurant housed in a 15th-century building.

Hotel: Grand Hotel La Cloche

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Daily Options: 13.4, 26.2 or 38.8 miles (22.3, 43.7 or 64.7 km)

DAY 7: Transfer to Dijon railway station / VBT Bicycle Vacation ends

VBT-Bicycle-Vacation-only guests: Your tour ends after breakfast. It is an easy five-minute walk to the Dijon train station if you wish to take a train to the airport or your next destination.

VBT provides you with City Information and recommendations for what to see and do in Paris. Use the rest of the day to relax or to begin exploring Paris.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodations

May vary depending on departure date.

Grand Hotel La Cloche Dijon - MGallery (Days: 5,6)

For nearly 600 years, the Grand Hotel La Cloche Dijon – MGallery has been welcoming visitors to the heart of Burgundy. Today, the hotel is set in a centrally located, 19th-century heritage building near the Old Town and a number of attractions, including museums and the Ducal Palace. Savor delicious gourmet French and international cuisine at the hotel's two restaurants, and take advantage of the fitness center.

Hotel le Rempart (Days: 1,2)

Past and present converge at the Hotel le Rempart, a 4-star, family-run establishment built on medieval ramparts and set on the site of a 15th-century guardhouse. Inside, find an elegant, modern ambiance and a focus on the cuisine for which Burgundy is famous. In the restaurant, enjoy a creative menu based on fresh local produce, or dine in the bistro, whose menu is also served on the delightful Romanesque patio in warm weather.

Hotel Le Cep (Days: 3,4)

Hotel Le Cep, tucked into the heart of medieval Beaune, was made for royalty. This was Louis XIV's favorite accommodation when he visited Burgundy. Constructed as a private home in the 16th century, its grounds include buildings dating from the 14th century, with its “newest” structures from the 18th century. The 1547 courtyard is overlooked by Italianate galleries and two lovely towers. With a renowned restaurant, whose wine list boasts 50 regional wines, the Hotel Le Cep is one of the “Small Luxury Hotels of the World” and was included in the 500 best hotels list from Travel + Leisure for 2013, demonstrating its excellence in quality.
