DAY 1: Independent exploration of Dublin

One of the oldest cities in Europe, Dublin overflows with cultural riches, from the ancient to the avant-garde. Medieval, Georgian, and modern architecture provide a backdrop to a friendly, bustling port that claims literary giants such as Wilde, Shaw, Joyce, Yeats, Beckett, and O'Casey as native sons. Whatever your interests—history, architecture, literature, art, archaeology, or the performing arts—you'll find something here to delight you. Throughout the city, monuments commemorate the writers, poets, statesmen, soldiers, and colorful people who make Dublin a place like no other.
