DAY 1: Depart from home / Arrive in Montreal

Depart from home for Montreal, Canada. Upon arrival at the Montreal–Pierre Elliott Trudeau International Airport (YUL), claim your luggage. You will also be required to clear customs if you did not do so prior to arriving Montreal. Make certain your VBT luggage tags are clearly visible so that our VBT representative can identify you. If your luggage is lost, file a claim with your airline's luggage service counter before leaving the customs area. VBT representatives are not allowed into the customs area.

After exiting customs and/or after claiming your checked luggage enter the arrival hall and immediately after you exit the sliding glass doors, begin to look for your VBT representative, who will be holding a sign with your name and VBT logo. He or she will assist you in your arranged transfer to your centrally located hotel (a journey of approximately 30 minutes). Please note: If you arrive early, your hotel room may not be available until 3:00 p.m. You may store your luggage with the reception desk.

The rest of the day is yours to explore Montreal at leisure, using the VBT City Information as your guide. All meals are on your own today.

Please note: VBT transfer times and departure points are finalized in advance and cannot be modified for individual guests. If you fly in earlier than the scheduled program dates, transportation from the airport will be at your own expense.

Hotel: Delta Hotels by Marriott Montreal

DAY 2: VBT Bicycle Vacation begins in Montreal / Transfer to Stanbridge East / Warm Up Ride

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast at your hotel, then meet your VBT Trip Leaders in the lobby of your hotel at 9:30 a.m. for your transfer (approximately 1 hour and 10 minutes travel time) to the start of your bicycle ride. Your VBT trip leaders will be holding a VBT sign and will be easy to recognize as they will be wearing VBT garments. Please come dressed for cycling (with your pedals or saddle if you use your own), as there will be no place to change into cycling clothes before beginning the bicycle ride. Your transfer will leave Montreal at 10:00 a.m.

Your first destination is Le Old Mill 1849 in Stanbridge East, a charming restaurant in an old mill village that ended the 18th-century policy of “no settlements along the frontier” when it was established in 1792. You may stretch your legs as you tour the grounds along the river, after which you will enjoy a light lunch.

After lunch, meet your trip leaders for a safety and bike-fitting session. Start your first day of your tour with an easy ride on quiet roads through the gently rolling terrain of vineyard country and into the village of Frelighsburg, nestled in a valley of orchards. Like neighboring Vermont, just 2.5 miles away, it is renowned for its maple syrup. You can sample a delicious maple syrup pie as you pass through. Continue riding along quiet country roads and over a covered bridge to of Domaine du Ridge, a delightful vineyard in a pastoral setting near the U.S. border. Enjoy a tasting while your trip leaders load your bicycles for your transfer to your hotel. From here, you shuttle about 30 minutes to the inn.

Tonight, enjoy a welcome reception, followed by dinner at your inn’s charming restaurant, Bistro West Brome.

Hotel: Auberge West Brome

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Today’s Ride Choice:

Domaine du Ridge Warm-Up: 26 km (16 miles)

What to Expect: Your first spin gives you the opportunity to fit your bike, shift the gears and practice riding. After a light lunch at Le Old Mill 1849, cycle gently rolling terrain to Frelighsburg, a picturesque village of charming buildings. After savoring a piece of maple syrup pie, follow country roads (one long, gradual hill leaving the village) to the Guthrie Covered Bridge and head to Domaine du Ridge for a wine tasting followed by tour transfer to your hotel (30-minutes).

DAY 3: Knowlton / Brome Lake / Explore Sutton

After a hearty country Quebecois breakfast, the second day of your tour takes you out onto scenic roads, to the Victorian village of Knowlton, sometimes called Brome Lake for the water on which it sits. En route, stop it a Brome Lake Ducks to learn about the regions famous Pekin ducks or at Douglas Beach for a swim in the lake.

For lunch, you may choose from a variety of restaurants in Knowlton, a seasonal residence for many wealthy Montrealers and current home of Canadian author Louise Penny whose mystery novels are centered on the fictional character of Chief Inspector Gamache. Discover the setting for Penny's Three Pines. There'll also be time to browse the art galleries and boutiques brimming with handicrafts and folksy works of art. During your visit, you will witness the Loyalist and New England influences in the colonnaded buildings and luxurious homes on the lakeshore. The town was founded by United Empire Loyalists in 1802 and tangible signs of the prosperity they created are everywhere.

You may shuttle back or continue cycling to the auberge. The afternoon's rides are either back via the main road or through a mix of hard-gravel and paved roads past the small village of Brome along rolling hills.

This afternoon, relax poolside or enjoy an optional spa treatment (advanced reservations recommended) before dinner on your own. Your trip leaders will offer a shuttle to the nearby town of Sutton (10 minutes' travel time), where you can choose from the microbrewery, bistro, or café.

Hotel: Auberge West Brome

Meals: Breakfast

Today's Ride Choices:

Cumulative Range: 15 – 48 km (9 – 29 miles)

Morning

West Brome to Knowlton: 32 km (20 miles)

Afternoon

Knowlton to West Brome: 15 km (9 miles)

Knowlton to West Brome Plus: 16 km (10 miles)

What to Expect: Follow a scenic paved route, to Knowlton. Return to West Brome after lunch by bike or shuttle. This afternoon, rides are either back via the main road or through a mix of hard-gravel and paved roads past the small village of Brome along rolling hills.

DAY 4: Shuttle to Mansonville / Lake Memphremagog / Abbaye Saint-

Benoit-du-Lac / Magog / Ayer's Cliff

After breakfast at your auberge, you shuttle through the scenic Missisquoi River Valley, named by a First Nations Abenaki tribe of Quebec and northern Vermont. Today's ride begins in Mansonville, a rural community whose Owl's Head ski resort lures outdoor lovers. Enjoy views of this mountain as you cycle toward Lake Memphremagog, a 32-mile-long lake that straddles Vermont and Quebec. Your morning ride past forested slopes and vast stretches of farmland leads to Abbaye Saint-Benoit-du-Lac, where Benedictine monks practice a life of contemplation based in prayer and farm work. You pause here to for a guided tour and a tasting of their famous cheese.

Enjoy a picnic lunch before cycling on to Magog on the northern shore of Lake Memphremagog. Founded by Loyalists in 1776, Magog enjoys a lively craft beer scene; you can enjoy some of the brews before you shuttle to Ayer's Cliff and your home for the next three nights, Ripplecove Resort and Spa. Tonight, dinner is at your lakeside hotel.

Please Note: On this day of the tour, when there are more than 10 guests in the group, there will be two support vans operated by your trip leaders. This may result in a van only sweep of the route instead of a biking leader.

Hotel: Ripplecove Resort & Spa

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Today's Ride Choices:

Cumulative Range: 19 – 46 km (12 – 29 miles)

Morning

Mansonville to Abbaye: 27 km (17 miles)

Abbaye to Magog: 19 km (12 miles)

What to Expect: Ride along peaceful back roads overlooking Lake Memphremagog and Owl's Head ski area. Arrive at the Abbaye Saint-Benoit-du-Lac for a picnic lunch and tour, then continue your reel to Magog. You will shuttle to your hotel from Magog's lakeside pub. Please Note: On this day of the tour, when there are more than 10 guests in the group, there will be two support vans operated by your trip leaders. This may result in a van only sweep of the route instead of a biking leader.

DAY 5: Cycle Tomifobia Nature Trail / Stanstead / North Hatley

Awake to the calm of Lake Massawippi—one of the most beautiful lakes you'll see on your tour.

Considered one of the ten most beautiful lakes in Quebec, Lake Massawippi, which means "the great deep lake" in Abenaki, is just under nine miles long, a little over one mile wide and reaches depths of up to 282 feet. The lake was for centuries a prime area of hunting and fishing for many native tribes.

After breakfast, you cycle from the inn to the village of Ayer's Cliff, where the Tomifobia Nature Trail begins. This tranquil pathway follows the old route of a Canadian Pacific Railway, tracing the west bank of the Tomifobia River against its current. Your southward ride delivers you to the village of Stanstead.

Enjoy lunch on your own in Stanstead. Magnificent 19th-century buildings and homes line Dufferin Street in Stanstead. The street leads to the world's friendliest border, where you will find Canusa (Canada-USA) Street. Remarkably, this is one of the only streets in the world where a national border corresponds to the street's center line, making literal neighbors out of Canadians and Americans. Elsewhere in town, the Haskell Free Library and Opera House was constructed to straddle the border. You will cycle past prestigious Stanstead College to the Colby-Curtis Museum for an optional visit of its history exhibits and Victorian Gardens.

After time to explore this fascinating town, continue cycling north on a picturesque road back to Ayer's Cliff and our inn. Enjoy time by the lake this afternoon.

This afternoon's optional route follows moderate and rolling terrain around Lake Massawippi to North Hatley, a quaint lakeside village. Stop for a refreshment at the local pub or for gourmet chocolate at The Sweet Café where everything is homemade with passion, offering glimpses of the water along the way.

Early this evening for dinner on your own, stroll into Ayer's Cliff or shuttle to the north end of the lake to the charming little town of North Hatley. Your trip leaders will be happy to help you with recommendations and directions. After dinner, return to your inn by shuttle.

Hotel: Ripplecove Resort & Spa

Meals: Breakfast

Today's Ride Choices:

Cumulative Range: 20 – 56 km (12 – 36 miles)

Morning

Ayer's Cliff to Stanstead: 28 km (18 miles)

Afternoon

Stanstead via Main Road to Ripplecove: 20 km (12 miles)

Stanstead to Ripplecove: 28 km (18 miles)

What to Expect: Our morning ride follows the quiet, hard-packed trail along the Tomifobia River to Stanstead. Then cycle along a picturesque road to Ayer's Cliff and the inn. This afternoon's ride traverses moderate and rolling terrain along Lake Massawippi to charming, lakeside North Hatley. Our route out of North Hatley features a climb and rolling countryside.

DAY 6: Fitch Bay / Bleu Lavande / North Hatley

Today's final day of your Quebec bike tour takes you along a patchwork of agricultural land. After this rewarding reel through more picturesque landscapes, you coast into Fitch Bay, stopping at the beloved Narrows Bridge on your way. Dating to 1881, this covered bridge is one of only two in Quebec province to cross part of a lake. You are invited to tour Bleu Lavande, an agri-tourism lavender farm where the plant is harvested and transformed into lovely fragrant products. Afterwards, pause for lunch at the farm before you shuttle back to the inn.

This afternoon's optional route follows an easy route, mix of paved and gravel road, to the north end of Lake Massawippi to the village of North Hatley, a quaint lakeside village. Stop for a refreshment at the local pub or for gourmet chocolate at The Sweet Café where everything is homemade with passion, offering glimpses of the water along the way. Explore the town before a shuttle back to the inn. Or, continue cycling around Lake Massawippi on moderate and rolling terrain, on a mix of paved and gravel roads, back to the inn.

Tonight, you gather for our special farewell dinner at our hotel's superb restaurant Le Riverain.

Hotel: Ripplecove Resort & Spa

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Today's Ride Choice:

Cumulative Range: 18 – 55 km (11 – 40 miles)

Morning

Ayer's Cliff to Bleu Lavande: 27 km (17 miles)

Afternoon

Ripplecove to North Hatley: 18 km (11 miles)

Ripplecove to North Hatley (extra): 37 km (23 miles)

What to Expect: Ride out of Ayer's Cliff on a busy road with wide shoulder then through a patchwork of agricultural land following a tranquil road to Fitch Bay and Bleu Lavande. After lunch, shuttle back to the inn. Stay at the inn to relax or cycle to North Hatley on a quiet secondary paved road then on a gravel country road to the village of North Hatley. From here, either shuttle back to the inn or continue on the moderate and hilly ride back to the inn mainly on gravel roads.

DAY 7: VBT Bicycle Vacation ends / Depart for Home

Enjoy a final breakfast at Ripplecove before your transfer to the Montreal–Pierre Elliott Trudeau International Airport (YUL), where you will arrive by 10:30 a.m. for your return flight.

Meals: Breakfast
