DAY 2: Independent exploration of New York City

Pursue your own interests in this spectacular city. Your hotel is conveniently located in midtown, so you'll enjoy easy access to the highlights by foot or by subway. Perhaps you will stroll one of the city's latest additions, The High Line, a narrow 1.45-mile-long public park built on a historic elevated rail line above Manhattan's West Side. It runs from Gansevoort Street in the Meatpacking District to West 34th Street, between 10th and 12th Avenues. Take the ferry out to Ellis Island, entry point for countless immigrants. Or ascend the new One World Trade Center, the tallest building in the Western Hemisphere, for breathtaking views. This evening, perhaps you will take in a Broadway show.
