DAY 1: Begin your optional Post-Trip Extension

Head out to discover one of Europe's best-preserved medieval cities, beautifully set on a limestone promontory jutting into the Adriatic. Strolling Dubrovnik's Stradun—the main thoroughfare laid with marble—is like stepping back in time. Be sure to explore the narrow alleys lined with shops and cafés, too. But the best approach to viewing Dubrovnik as it once was is to walk its perimeter—on the 1.3 miles of city walls that surround it. The stroll affords magical vistas of the red roofs and the blue sea that make this one of the most picturesque cities in the world.

If you wish, you can also spend time at your hotels' private beach today, relaxing after your bike and boat tour. For lunch and dinner, dine on some of the freshest seafood you're ever likely to taste.

DAY 2: Independent exploration of Dubrovnik

Enjoy another day uncovering the culture and history of Dubrovnik, once the center of the Ragusa Republic, a rival of Venice. Within the city walls, discover Europe's second oldest synagogue, a marvelous monastery with Romanesque cloisters, the city's main cathedral and the Rector's Palace. Arrive early enough in the morning so you can catch the vibrant, colorful food market at Gundulic Square; pick up some local fig brandy, intricate lacework or candied fruit. For sweeping views of the city, take the cable car to the top of the adjacent Mt. Srd. The hilltop Fort Imperial here was built by the French during the Napoleonic Wars.

Back in town, celebrate Croatia with a succulent seafood dinner and find a small, intimate wine bar to toast your adventure.
